Middleburg, VA, Jan 28 – The American Water Resources Association (AWRA) is accepting entries for the 2010 Outstanding AWRA State Section & Student Chapter Awards. These awards were created to recognize the volunteer efforts of leaders to provide innovative programs to its members, grow the membership, and establish AWRA as a significant water resources professional organization in the state or student community. Any active AWRA State Section or Student Chapter may enter.

The Outstanding AWRA State Section application is available here. The Outstanding AWRA Student Chapter application is available here. Go to the AWRA Awards Nomination page (www.awra.org/about/awards) for more information and submittal instructions. Entries are due May 7, 2010.

AWRA is the premier non-governmental organization dedicated to the advancement of multidisciplinary water resources management and research. For over 40 years, AWRA has provided a forum for water resources conservation and networking. AWRA has members in every state and in over 50 nations. More information at: <http://www.awra.org>.
