ARTICLE I. OBJECTIVES

The principal objectives of the Association are:

- a. The advancement of water resources research, planning, development, management, and education.
- b. The establishment of a common meeting ground for physical, biological, and social scientists, engineers, and other persons concerned with water resources.
- c. The collection, organization, and dissemination of ideas and information in the field of water resources science and technology.

ARTICLE II. GOVERNANCE

Section 1 Name and Incorporation

The name of this Association is the AMERICAN WATER RESOURCES ASSOCIATION, also known as AWRA. AWRA is a duly incorporated Association under the laws of the State of Illinois.

Section 2 Corporate Powers

The corporate powers of the Association will be vested in a Board of Directors (the Board).

Section 3 Place of Business

The Association's principal place of business will be the Association Headquarters, located in the Washington, DC, metropolitan area. It will remain there until changed by the Board of Directors, after due notice to the membership.

Section 4 Registered Agent

The Board at its discretion will designate a Registered Agent, who resides in the State of Illinois. This Agent will serve as liaison with the Board regarding any matter pertaining to legal aspects of the Articles of Incorporation of the Association. This Agent will serve at the pleasure of the Board.

Section 5 Operating Limitation

No part of the net earnings of the Association will inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, officers, or other private persons with the following exceptions. The Association is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes as an educational and scientific association. Further, the Association will not permit lobbying or attempt to influence legislation, and will not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Bylaws, the Association will not carry on any other activities prohibited by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law)

Section 6 Fiscal Year

The Association's fiscal year is from January 1 to December 31, inclusive.

Section 7 Indemnification

The Association shall indemnify every Director, Officer, Editor, Associate Editor, and employee of the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred and imposed upon them in connection with any proceeding, other than a proceeding brought against them by the Association, to which they may be made a party, or in which they may become involved with, by reason of their being or having been a Director, Officer, Editor, Associate Editor or employee of the Association, or any settlement thereof, whether or not they are a Director, Officer, Editor, Associate Editor or employee at the time such expenses are incurred, except in such cases wherein the Director, Officer, Editor, Associate Editor or employee is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of their duties.

- Section 8 Special Gifts
The Association may accept gifts and bequests at the discretion of the Executive Committee and invest or use them consistent with these Bylaws.

ARTICLE III. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- Section 1 Composition
The Board of Directors consists of the President, Immediate Past President, President Elect, Secretary/Treasurer, six to 11 Directors (elected at large) and the Executive Vice President. The number of Directors may be fixed or changed from time to time, within the minimum and maximum, by the Board

- Section 2 Officers of the Association
The Officers of the Association are the President, President-Elect, Immediate Past President, Secretary/Treasurer, and Executive Vice President. The Officers of the Association will constitute the Executive Committee and with the exception of the Executive Vice President, must be members in good standing of the Association. With the exception of the Executive Vice President, each officer will be elected in accordance with these Bylaws.

- Section 3 Directors of the Association
Directors must be members in good standing of the Association elected in accordance with these Bylaws.

- Section 4 Terms of Office
The terms of office for the President, President-Elect, and Immediate Past President are one year. The terms of office for the Secretary/ Treasurer and the Directors are three years each. The terms of approximately one third of the Directors will expire each year.

- Section 5 Elections

- A. Nominations
By December 31, the President-Elect will appoint a Nominations/Awards Committee charged with preparing a slate of qualified candidates for election as Officers and Directors of the Association and a slate of qualified candidates for the Association's awards. This committee will be composed of at least three members in good standing. The President-Elect will designate a chairperson and vice-chairperson. The Committee will determine the eligibility of candidates for Officers and Directors and by majority vote resolve any election disputes. In preparing its slate of officer and director candidates, the Committee will announce the positions to be filled in the next election, solicit recommendations for nominees from the membership, and confer with each potential nominee to determine eligibility, understanding of their responsibilities and willingness to serve. The slate of officer and director nominees will be mailed to members by June 1 each year.
- B. Acceptance of Nominations
The Executive Vice President, with assistance from the Nominating Committee, will obtain written acceptance of nomination, expressing a willingness to take office if elected, from each nominee. Letters of acceptance will be kept on file at the Association Headquarters.
- C. Nomination by Petition
Members may nominate additional candidates for announced positions by submitting a written petition to the Association Headquarters, signed by not less than twenty-five (25) the Association members in good standing. A letter signed by the nominee expressing a willingness to accept the nomination and to serve if elected and a brief biographical sketch of the nominee must accompany the petition. Such petitions, with the requisite signatures, the acceptance letter, and the biographical sketch must be received at the Association Headquarters no later than June 15. Nominees by petition will be so designated on the ballot.

D. Ballots

The Executive Vice President will prepare ballots for all contested positions and send ballots electronically to all Members in good standing no later than July 1. Ballots are not required for uncontested positions. To be valid, returned ballots must be received electronically, at the Association Headquarters by normal close of business (COB) on August 15, or COB the following Monday if August 15 falls on Saturday or Sunday. The President will appoint a Tellers Committee to open and verify the electronic results of the election. The Tellers Committee will report the results in writing to the President who will notify each candidate of the results. The electronic votes will be kept on file by the Executive Vice President for six (6) months.

E. Plurality and Tie Votes

A plurality of valid ballots cast will be sufficient for election. In case of a tie vote, the tied candidates will draw lots to determine which person will serve.

F. Election Results

Results will be published in the next issue of Water Resources IMPACT.

Section 6

Duties

A. Board of Directors

1. The Board will conduct its affairs to advance the science, technology, management, development, and planning of water resources; and to disseminate technical knowledge through publications, meetings, and other means.
2. The Board will direct the investment and care of the funds of the Association; manage the affairs of the Association in accordance with these Bylaws; and generally direct the business of the Association.
3. The Board may appoint a chief executive officer to administer the affairs of the Association; this person serves at the pleasure of the Board..
4. Should a vacancy occur in an elective office, the Board may appoint a member in good standing to fill the unexpired term, provided written notice of the proposed action has been given to all Board members.
5. An officer may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the entire Board or by a two-thirds vote of membership present and voting, either in person or by proxy, following at least two weeks advance notice of the proposed action, whenever in its (or their) judgment the best interest of the Association would be served thereby. A Director may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the membership present and voting, either in person or by proxy, following at least two weeks advance notice of the proposed action, whenever in their judgment the best interest of the Association would be served thereby. Notwithstanding these general provisions, no officer elected by the members may be removed from office by the Board when it would result in that person losing a Board seat.
6. Each Board member shall attend all Board of Director's meetings. This includes as a minimum, the first meeting of the year usually held in January, and the annual Board of Director's meeting held at the Annual Conference.

B. Executive Committee

1. Between meetings of the Board, the Executive Committee will exercise the full powers of the Board in matters that the Executive Committee determines must be acted upon before the next regular meeting of the Board, with the exceptions cited in these Bylaws or Illinois law. All actions taken by the Executive Committee will be in accordance with the general policies of the Board and be reported to the Board at its next meeting.
2. The Executive Committee will exercise immediate supervision of the fiscal affairs of the Association. For any period of time between the beginning of each fiscal year and the adoption of the budget for that fiscal year by the Board, the Executive Committee will have fiscal authority for the Association.
3. Annually, the Executive Committee may make recommendations to the Board on nominations for Honorary Membership, Fellow Membership, and any special awards for outstanding contributions to the Association or to water resources activities.
4. The Executive Committee may not amend these Bylaws nor fill vacancies on the Board.
5. The Executive Committee will be responsible for strategic planning on a continuing basis.

C. President

The President will have general supervision over the affairs of the Association; preside at meetings of the Association, the Board, and the Executive Committee; serve as ex officio member of all committees, except the nominating committee; and prepare an annual report of the Association for submission at the Annual meeting.

D. President-Elect

During the temporary absence or disability of the President, with consent of the Board, the President-Elect will discharge the duties of the President. The President-Elect will assist the President in such other ways as the President deems appropriate.

Standing Administrative Committees:

1. Finance
2. Leadership Development and Recognition
3. Tellers

ARTICLE IV MEETINGS

Section 1 Annual Business
The Association may hold one general business meeting annually, termed the Annual Business Meeting. At the Annual Business Meeting, and other regularly appointed business meetings, 20 Members will constitute a quorum.

Section 2 Board Meetings
Meetings of the Board will be held at such times and places as the Board determines to be necessary for the discharge of its duties. The President may conduct business of the Board by conference telephone or other communication equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can communicate with each other, in lieu of a meeting. A majority of the membership of the Board will constitute a quorum for transacting of business.

- a. Normally the Board will hold at least two meetings each year. One of these meetings is customarily held at the time of the Annual Conference.
- b. The President may call special meetings of the Board, but must provide at least 7 days advance notice to members of the Board of such meeting. Notice of additional meetings will state the purpose of such meetings and no business, except that stipulated in the notice, will be considered.

Section 3 Executive Committee Meetings
Meetings of the Executive Committee will be held at such times and places as the President determines necessary. The President may conduct business of the Executive Committee by conference telephone or other communication equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can communicate with each other, in lieu of a meeting. A simple majority of the members of the Executive Committee will constitute a quorum for transacting business.

Section 4 Conduct of Meetings
All meetings of the Association, unless otherwise provided, will be conducted according to Robert's Rules of Order, Revised.

ARTICLE V MEMBERSHIP

- Section 1 Eligibility

There is a three-year limit on Student Membership.
- Section 3 Voting
All members of the Association are eligible to vote and hold office, except for Student and Gateway Members.
- Section 4 Nomination for Honorary & Fellow Member Type
Any member in good standing of the Association can make nominations to the Nominations/Awards Committee for Honorary and Fellow Members. The Committee has the exclusive authority to elect members into these types of membership.
- Section 5 Dues
- a. Payment of Dues. Dues will be paid by calendar year in advance, as a requirement for continuing membership. The Board, at any of its meetings, may set dues for all types of membership by a favorable vote of at least two-thirds of those present. Honorary Members are exempt from dues, but the Association may accept voluntary contributions from them. Every member of the Association is liable for payment of all dues until their membership has been terminated or unless they have been relieved of payment of dues by the Board. .
 - b. Dues Statements. No later than November 1 each year, the Association Headquarters will mail to each dues-paying member, at the latest address known to the Association, a statement of the member's current indebtedness, if any, and the amount of dues for the ensuing calendar year.
 - c. Penalties. In order to insure uninterrupted receipt of membership publications, dues must be paid by January 1. The Association Headquarters will notify members whose dues are 1 month in arrears and will mail another notice if not paid in 3 months. If dues have not been paid by April 15, the Member will lose the right to vote and no longer be considered in good standing.
 - d. Remission of Dues. The Board may excuse any member from pay of annual dues, subject to review annually, for cause it deems sufficient.
- Section 6 Separation from Membership
The Board may deny or discontinue a membership in the Association because of:

- a. Nonpayment of Dues. Any member of the Association who has failed to pay dues by April 15 shall no longer be in good standing, shall be subject to termination of services, and be separated from membership in the Association, with one exception. The Board may extend the time for payment of dues and for the application of these penalties for cause it deems sufficient.
- b. Other Separation from Membership. The Board may separate a member (individual or entity) for engaging in a practice or acting in a manner that discredits the Association. Such separations require a two-thirds or more affirmative vote of the total Board membership. At the time of separation the Board may refund any portion of dues paid beyond the date of separation or may decline to accept renewal of membership for any subsequent year. The Secretary/ Treasurer or the President will notify the separated member of the action and the effective date of the separation, which will be the earlier of (a) December 31 of the year or (b) 30 days after the date of the notice.

Section 7

Sections and Student Chapters

- a. Geographical Sections and Student Chapters may be formed with the approval of the Board. Each Section or Student Chapter may elect a President, Secretary, and such other officers, as the Section or Student Chapter membership considers necessary.
- b. Sections and Student Chapters are operated to: (a) promote the objectives of the Association both regionally and locally; (b) encourage membership in the Association; (c) arrange regional and local conferences or seminars deemed valuable; and (d) make recommendations to the Board on the affairs of the Association.
- c. Sections and Student Chapters will operate in conformance with the Bylaws of the Association. Section and Student Chapter officers are required to be members of the Association when they assume office. Sections and Student Chapters may accept nonmembers of the Association as Section or Student Chapter members.

ARTICLE VI CONFERENCES & PUBLICATIONS
